

ORE2EQUITY

GUIDELINES

2026

COMPOSIT | 31ST EDITION

OVERVIEW

DESCRIPTION

Ore2Equity is a multi-round finance and economics event designed to test participants on their analytical ability, financial intuition, and real-world economic thinking. The event simulates the journey of transforming a raw resource (“Ore”) into a high-value financial outcome (“Equity”), mirroring how informed decision-making creates value in markets and businesses.

Participants progress through three competitive rounds, each focusing on a different skill set: conceptual clarity, applied analysis, and strategic presentation.
